

LOOKING TO SHAPE HISTORY AND THE DEBATE AROUND OUR CORE VALUES AND MOST URGENT POLICY DECISIONS FACING OUR COUNTRY?

APPLY TODAY - TENNESSEE FELLOWSHIP

Organizing for Action is the grassroots movement built by millions of Americans to pass the agenda we voted for in 2012.

Our Fellowship Program is geared at recruiting the next generation of organizers into the progressive movement. We are looking for passionate new leaders who are interested in exploring OFA's broad scope approach to issue advocacy. Fellows can expect to learn best practices in the areas of community organizing, media relations, and grassroots fundraising.

Apply today: <http://ofatn.com/fellowship>

Types of Fellowships

- Management
- Organizing (building teams and teaching)
- Campus organizing
- Communications/Press
- Digital/New Media
- Data Management & Training
- Policy (learning and training on policy/legislative process)
- Immigration, Gun Violence, Budget, Climate Change, Health Care
- Fundraising (large and small donor)
- Operations
- Project management

FAQs

- Is it paid? Not in cash, but in experience. You will have real responsibilities that will determine the course of history. We don't make you get coffee and file papers – we count on you to do something big.
- Credit Hours? – depends on your school. Really amazing ones will give you credit.
- Experience needed? No. Only need to be willing to work hard, make mistakes, learn.
- Fellowships are highly competitive and our best fellows have been self-starters and action takers.
- Are there age requirements? Nope! We've had high school students to 80 year olds!

"You and I, as citizens, have the power to set this country's course. You and I, as citizens, have the obligation to shape the debates of our time – not only with the votes we cast, but with the voices we lift in defense of our most ancient values and enduring ideals."

– President Barack Obama's 2nd Inaugural Address